

Fedor Bogomolov

Courant Institute, New York University

Braid group and Szpiro inequality

I want to discuss the proof of Szpiro inequality for elliptic curves in the functional case which relies on the structure of the lifting of a monodromy representation to the central extension of the braid group. I will also discuss of the problems with this approach in the case of elliptic curves over number fields.