

Gareth Jones
University of Manchester

An effective instance of the relative Manin-Mumford conjecture

Bertrand, Masser, Pillay and Zannier proved (amongst other things) that there are only finitely many roots of unity t such that the point with x -coordinate 2 is torsion on the Legendre curve E_t . I will sketch an effective proof of this result.