

Emmanuel Ullmo

Université Paris-Sud, Director of IHES

Algebraic flows on Abelian varieties and locally symmetric varieties

Ax-Lindemann predicts that the Zariski closure of an algebraic flow on an Abelian variety or a locally symmetric variety is a (weakly) special subvariety. I will discuss conjectures and very partial results concerning the usual analytic closure of algebraic flows in these situations.